AN ORDINANCE
To amend sections 431a, 431b, 431c, and 431d of the Revised Ordinances.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Akron, Ohio:

Section 1. That sections 431a, 431b, 431c, and 431d of the Revised Ordinances be amended so as to read as follows, to wit:

Sec. 431a. Every railway owned, possessed or operated by any individual, company, association, or corporation located wholly or partly within the limits of the City of Akron, be and they are hereby required to light the intersections of the lines of railway so owned, possessed or operated by said individual, company, association or corporation, or any of them, with Ash street, Cherry street, Beech street, Walnut street and North street, Hickory street, Bank street, Kent street, Case avenue, River street and Case avenue, Exchange street and Arlington street, Factory street, North Arlington street, South High street, South Main street, North Main street, North street, North High street, North Broadway street, North Summit street, Miller avenue, Crosier street, South street, Voris street, Thornton street, McCoy street, Exchange street, Buchtel avenue, Center street and Mill street.

Sec. 431b. One electric arc lamp with the necessary attachments, similar in all respects to the electric arc lamps now used in lighting the streets of said city of Akron, shall be properly suspended at such points or places at or near the intersections of any of the streets named in sections 431a, as the Board of City Commissioners shall designate. Each lamp shall be not less than eighteen feet from the ground, and shall be lighted and kept burning continuously each night the number of hours that city electric street lamps are lighted, under the supervision of the Board of City Commissioners.

Sec. 431c. The said Board of City Commissioners shall cause notice of the passage and requirements of this ordinance to be served upon each individual, company, association or corporation according to law.

Sec. 431d. If said individual, company, association or corporation or any of them, shall neglect or fail to light the aforesaid lines of railway, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of sections 431a and 431b, for a period of twenty days after the service of notice as aforesaid, then the City of Akron may immediately proceed to cause the lighting to be done as aforesaid, and the cost and expense thereof shall be assessed upon the property of the said individual, company, association or corporation according to law, and the same shall be a lien to be enforced as any other lien upon the real estate or leasehold interest of said individual, company, association or corporation, or either of them, which may be in default, situate within the county of Summit, and State of Ohio.

Sec. 2. That said sections 431a, 431b, 431c and 431d be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Recommended by the Board of City Commissioners.

AN ORDINANCE
Whereas, Mr. Andrew Carnegie has proposed to the Board of Control of the Akron Public Library, that he will provide the sum of $70,000 for a free public library building for the City of Akron, on condition that the City furnish a site for such building; and provide for a suitable annual support of not less than $7,000 per annum, and

Whereas, it is the sense of the City Council that in the interests of the people, the conditions to make said gift available, should be met and complied with, and

Whereas, the City Council has by resolution, now duly passed, pledged the required annual support for the public library, the same being a sum not in excess of that heretofore provided, and being a sum within the limits of legal taxation.

Therefore, in order to meet the further condition of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and to make such proposed gift available.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Akron, Ohio:

That Pierce Park be, and the same is hereby set apart forever, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining thereon a free public library building; and to such use Pierce Park is hereby dedicated; and the Board of Control of the Akron Public Library is hereby authorized to receive and accept the proposed gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, for the use and purposes for which it is offered; and to take such further action as may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the offer of Mr. Andrew Carnegie.

Passed, January 6, 1902.

A RESOLUTION.
Whereas, Mr. Andrew Carnegie has communicated to the Board of Control of the Akron Public Library, his intention and desire to contribute the sum of $70,000 for building and equipping a suitable structure to contain said library, and

Whereas, this amount is to be contributed upon condition that the City of Akron shall appropriate annually for the maintenance and support of said library, a sum not less than $7,000, and

Whereas, with the rate of taxation prescribed by law to be assessed for library purposes, upon all personal and real property assessed for taxation, it will afford a sum equal to and greater than the amount set forth in said condition,

Wherefore, be it resolved by the Council of the City of Akron, Ohio, that the proposition of Mr. Andrew Carnegie be accepted; that we pledge an annual support for the Akron Public Library of not less than $7,000.00; and that we deem it necessary for the proper maintenance and support of the said Akron Public Library, that there shall be levied and assessed upon all the taxable, real and personal property of said city the maximum rate allowed by law.

Adopted, January 6, 1902.

AN ORDINANCE
To vacate five (5) feet off from the southerly side of West South street, between Main street and the Ohio Canal.

Whereas, on the 19th day of August, 1901, a petition was presented to the Council for the vacation of five (5) feet off from the southerly side of West South street, from Main street to the Ohio Canal, notice of the pending and prayer of which has been given as required by law; and

Whereas, upon hearing, the Council is satisfied that there is just cause for such vacation, and that the same would not be detrimental for the general interest and should be made; therefore,

Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Akron, Ohio, that said five (5) feet off from the southerly side of West South street, from Main street to the Ohio Canal, be and the same is hereby vacated.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.
